Dear [redacted]

STAT

We have just received [redacted] dated 31 July 1975, granting us educational benefits for dependents. This would seem to negate any questions I raised in my recent letter to you ([redacted]) concerning this subject. I assume there were outcries from all over which forced Headquarters to take some action.

Thank you for any help you may have given in getting this rule changed and coming to the defense of us overseas.

Dear [redacted],

Many thanks for your letter. Immediately upon receipt of it I spoke to the Personnel people and I think that you will now have received [redacted] which does, I believe, partly solve this problem.

25X1

25X1 Sorry [redacted] nose was a little out of joint over the 25X1 [redacted] business but this was done with the full knowledge 25X1 and consent of [redacted] and I explained this to [redacted] who understood. We did not in any way depart from our neutrality and, in fact, may have helped avert trouble.

25X1

25X1 I still feel [redacted] got his info from an American source.
Glad to hear books will be along. Best to you and yours.

As ever,

/s/
